“A SPRIGHTLY TALE OF SELF-DISCOVERY THAT’S BOTH AFFECTING AND ENDEARING.” —KIRKUS REVIEWS

Miss Sorenson’s fifth-grade class at Green Hill Academy is going to make a movie... a mummy movie!

Brilliant but awkward Bernard Gawain is thrilled his crush, Bridget Matsumoto, has been cast as the leading lady, and he will be playing her hero. But this dream come true unravels when his domineering mother becomes the class substitute teacher and the film's tyrannical director.
